DSS information for SOLAS Apprentices

January – March 2017

If you need exam supports for your SOLAS exams or support for studying, you must register with the CIT Disability Support Service (DSS).

- The DSS need to get this form and a copy of your supporting documents for you to register fully for supports, e.g. an educational psychologist's report for dyslexia (not a GP letter) or a State Examination Commissions letter, or a consultant's letter for a health condition/disability. Email dss@cit.ie for any queries.
- You can drop this form and documents into the Access Service office (where the DSS staff are based), ground floor of the CIT Student Centre (beside the Bistro) in Bishopstown (open 8.30 - 16.30). You should do this as early as possible.

Exam supports information:

The closing date to register (including documents) for exam supports such as a reader, scribe, extra time, or separate room for SOLAS exams is:

Friday 10th February 2017

If you register or ask for exam supports after this date, the Exams Office will not be able to arrange these for you.

- The DSS will use your documents to confirm what exam supports you are entitled to with both you and the CIT Exams Office. The Exams Office will then contact you a few weeks before the exams start with the details of your exam arrangements.
- If you got extra time, reader, scribe or separate room in your SOLAS/ FÁS apprentice exams at CIT in the past and would like this again for your repeat / Phase 6 exams please send this form to the DSS by the date above. You do not need to give us another copy of your documents again.
