

Assessment Appeal – Individual Extenuating Circumstances

Semester One Examination Period – Academic Year 2025/2026

This form should be completed by students submitting an assessment appeal on the grounds of: Individual Extenuating Circumstances which were not known at the time of the assessment, or which were submitted sub rosa.

Before proceeding with this appeal, you must read the following points of information and tick the box to indicate that you have read and understood these points:

It is the student's responsibility to consult the Assessment Appeals Guidelines and the MTU Assessment Appeals Policy

- It is the student's responsibility to consult the Assessment Appeals Guidelines and the MTU Cork Campuses Assessment Appeals Policy.
- An Assessment Appeal relating to individual extenuating circumstances must be supported by appropriate evidence and documentation. This evidence must be independent and relevant and must include all important details such as the nature and dates of the circumstances in question.

Evidence relating to individual extenuating circumstances must be submitted in a timely manner such that it can inform the deliberations of the relevant Module Examination Board and/or Progression and Awards Board. Therefore, evidence relating to extenuating circumstances will not normally be admitted as grounds for an assessment appeal, unless it can be shown that it was not possible to submit this evidence for consideration by the relevant Board.

(See Section 10.2 in the link below): MTU Assessment Appeals Policy

- If you wish to appeal on the grounds of “Extenuating Circumstances” you must provide reasons (and supporting evidence) as to why you were not able to submit the evidence on extenuating circumstances prior to the relevant Board meeting. See Section 10.2 of the [MTU Policy Governing Assessment Appeals

I have read and understood the Policy Governing Assessment Appeals and Correction of Errors and Omissions in Respect of Assessment
